

2011 Vendor List & Blurbs

Back River Farm

Farmer Brown of Back River Farm offers locally and naturally grown fruits and vegetables. They are a family-owned and operated farm with community ties for over 18 years. They do not utilize any chemicals or insecticides and will be Certified Naturally Grown in 2011. They will also be working towards an Organic Certification in 2011.

Buttercup Farm / Tewksbury Farm

Sue uses seasonal ingredients to make amazing soups, sauces, and dips straight from the garden. This year, Sue is partnering with farmer Tate of Tewksbury farm to grow more fresh ingredients. Look for Sue offering her seasonal creations alongside fresh produce from Tewksbury Farm.

Candy Bars Soap Co.

Candy Bars Soap Co. offers natural soaps and balms filled with skin loving olive and coconut oils, raw organic shea butter, and essential oils. Also available are bath fizzies to help soothe your muscles after a long day of gardening.

Earths Essential Soap

Earths Essential is a small artisan soap-making business. They handcraft premium natural soap bars using the traditional cold-processed method of soap-making using only the finest of all natural ingredients.

Greenleaf Farm

Greenleaf Farm: is a Certified Naturally Grown Farm in Barnesville, Georgia. They own 6 acres and are currently growing on 2 acres...everything from Asparagus to Zinnias. This is their 5th season in operation.

Hardright Bakery

Hardright Bakery has been in business for 20 years producing freshly baked goods daily in East Atlanta. Specialties include freshly baked wedding and birthday cakes, brownies, danishes, muffins, French and English pastries, bagels, cookies, pies, tarts and breads.

Hidden Springs Honey

100% pure raw local honey, the best nature can provide. Varieties include: Wildflower, Cotton, Thistle, Orange Blossom, Tupelo, and Tulip Poplar.

Legacy Alpaca Farm

Featuring handspun alpaca yarn from Terrill's own alpaca and homegrown free-range eggs.

Lil Birdie Blues

Based in Decatur, these two sister-in-laws have a passion for fashion and love to express their uniqueness through hair accessories. Using interesting vintage pieces, they like to mix old with the new, making every hair accessory one of a kind. Visit this booth to discuss how they can turn your grandmother's brooch or other special pieces into a new accessory custom made for you.

LefTeas

See Angela for wonderful handcrafted tea blends.

Little Red Hen Farm

This family farm is dedicated to raising the highest quality tasting chicken, pork, turkeys and free-range eggs you will find locally. Their animals get lots of natural grains, fresh air, sunshine and fresh grass, and receive no antibiotics or hormones.

Little Tart Bakeshop

A new Atlanta Bakery specializing in french-style confections with a strong commitment to local and sustainable food production practices.

Mama Bath + Body

Mama Bath + body is a culmination of almost 3 years of research and development, and a life-long love of body products. Emilie formulates, manufactures, pours and packages every batch by hand. She produces her own labels, designs her own website, writes her own copy and keeps her own books. Emilie says 'Mama is more than just a business for me, it's a lifestyle, a way to keep myself inspired.'

Mollyville Farms

Don & Maggie, along with their little future farmers are bringing you homegrown veggies and meat from Jenkinsburg, GA. They are a new farm that is focused on producing the way nature intended.

Muibaki Art

Muibaki Art offers original art, prints, and note cards featuring the art of Bob Gould and Kathyne Gould, who are father and daughter, and Lee Sims. Lee does pet portraits as well as portraits of children and adults.

My Coffee Shop

Stop by their table for fresh brewed coffee provided by Café Campasino, and their own signature Basil Lemonade blended with fresh, organic & fragrant basil.

Native Sun Farm

A family-run, Certified Naturally Grown farm nestled in the suburban fabric of Oconee County, Georgia. The farm produces a wide variety of fruits and vegetables from southern standards to the unique and unusual.

Oak Grove Farm

A Certified Naturally Grown farm out of Franklin, Ga. This is their second year growing vegetables on a farm that has been in the family for over 100 years. They grow a wide assortment of vegetables as well as fruit that is cultivated and wild harvested. They plan on bringing awesomeness, and are looking forward to seeing you there.

Oakleaf Mennonite Farm

Located in the heart of East Lake

Ora Farms

Ashley and Hudson, in partnership with their neighbor Jason, use their backyards to garden and educate neighborhood children on techniques of urban farming.

Pearson Farms

Pearson Farm has been growing peaches for five generations in and around Peach County, Georgia. Our market peaches are not like store bought peaches - they are neither hydro chlorinated nor are they coated with a wax chemical for preservation. The farm practices sustainable growing techniques and grows over 30 varieties of peaches, available between mid-May and August.

Ruff Around the Edges

Look for Allison's handmade dog collars in so many wonderful varieties... you will find her sharing a table with Taj Ma-Hound and their yummy dog treats.

Sourwood Honey

The philosophic, old-time musical stylings of Oak Grove Farm's own Joshua Davis sweetened by melodic voice of Christina Corley (Joshua's sweetheart).

Southeast Succulents

Environmentally responsible grower of exotic plants including succulents, cacti and Tillandsia (air plants). Earth-friendly products include vertical gardens, hypertufa (cement, peat moss, perlite, sand) pottery, terrariums and dish gardens.

Stoke FarmTaj Ma-Hound

Stop by for award winning all natural dog (and sometimes cat) treats. Located in neighboring Oakhurst Village, Taj offers a wide variety of everyday bite sized goodies in many flavors such as Bark-B-Q, Pea-Mutt Butter, Sweet Potato and Cheddar Bacon just to name a few. Made with restaurant quality ingredients, Taj Ma-Hound treats have one an award for Best Tasting (4 out of 4 paws) by Atlanta Magazine.

The East Lake Garden Club

Hand-tied flower bouquets, edible seasonal flowers perfect to add to your appetizers, salads, sandwiches and desserts, botanical note/greeting cards, and 'Live the Lush Life' Garden Club t-shirts. All proceeds go directly to support the Garden Club, which promotes conservation and beautification of the East Lake neighborhood.

The Pop Shop

The Pop Shop is Atlanta's premiere provider of handcrafted ice pops made with no preservatives, no artificial sweeteners, no colorings, or additives. Not only that... products are Vegetarian or Vegan, and Gluten Free!!!

Tierra Sonrisa

Tierra Sonrisa is a biodynamic market garden. It is also home to Recovery Eco Ag Project a nonprofit educational research NGO. We practice Biodynamic/French intensive, Permaculture design. Come check out their oh-so-fresh produce.

Tamalli

Offering fresh authentic Mexican tamales made completely from scratch.

Wood is Wonderful

Craftsman Yusef Crowder presents Hand carved, one-of-a-kind furniture, home decor, and decorative accessories.

Zocalo Salsas

Their products are made daily with fresh and natural ingredients they buy from local farmers. Products have no added any preservatives, are cholesterol free, high in protein, vegan, and gluten free!